Carroll County, located in west-central Iowa, is working hard to diversify, strengthen and develop its economy. Carroll County ranks among the highest livestock producing counties in Iowa and the nation. Manufacturing employment totals over 2,000.

Carroll is the regional business center for west-central Iowa. It is located at the junction of U.S. Highways 30 and 71 and is served by the Union Pacific Railroad. Des Moines Area Community College has a campus located in Carroll which plays an important part in economic development efforts. St. Anthony Regional Hospital’s continued expanded services highlight Carroll’s position as a regional medical center.

View 24 historic sites. Brochures available at Carroll County Historical Museum. (712) 792-1512
CARROLLTON HERITAGE PARK

The former site of the Carrollton Store is now a serene roadside park with a picnic table and benches. It has a map of Carrollton the way the town appeared at different dates of history by color coding. Big and Little Blue Stem native grasses and Burr Oak trees that were native to Iowa are in the park. Other areas of interest include the Carrollton Cemetery which was the first cemetery of the county. It was established in 1854. Many pioneer families and Civil War Veterans are buried here. A memorial information sign helps with genealogy searches. It is located approximately 2½ miles south of the Park. The former Carrollton School site is under construction for a bell tower. It is located a quarter mile east of the Park. County signs mark the areas.

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD DEPOT & PARK

407 W 5th St, Carroll

The unique 1896 Chicago & Northwestern Railroad depot and American Express & baggage buildings designed by Charles Sumner Frost in his classic, Victorian Romanesque style have been totally renovated. The depot buildings and adjacent, historic, railroad park have returned to their place as a community green space and meeting area. It now houses the Carroll Chamber of Commerce.

CNWRR DEPOT

Breda

The Chicago Northwestern Railroad Depot was built in 1905. The building has been restored to its original condition and has been furnished with some of the original furnishings along with memorabilia of the CNWRR.

GERMAN HAUSBARN / HERITAGE PARK / TRINITY CHURCH
Hwy 141, ½ mile east of Manning
Travel through time to experience Manning’s authentic German Hausbarn, built in 1660 in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany and reconstructed in 1999. View museum-quality architecture and displays of the thatched-roof barn where farm animals shared living quarters with the family. Also experience the 1915 era Leet-Hassler Farmstead, restored to its original state with all the furnishings of the period. The 92-year-old Trinity Lutheran Church was originally located nine miles southeast of Manning in Lincoln Township. The congregation was organized in 1881 by immigrants from northern Germany. When the church closed in 2006, the structure was transported to the Hausbarn-Heritage Park where it is being preserved. The historic church is available for non-denominational Christian events and open to the public for touring. The Heritage Park is open May 1 - October 31, Mon. - Sat. 10 am - 4 pm and Sun. 1 - 4 pm. Winter tours by appointment. For tours and rental information contact the Manning Hausbarn Heritage Park office at (712) 655-3131. heritage@mmctsu.com  www.germanhousbarn.com

LAKERS BASKETBALL COURT AND HISTORICAL MARKER
Veterans Memorial Park – Corner of Forest & 22nd St, Carroll
A January blizzard in 1960 resulted in an emergency DC-3 airplane landing of the professional basketball team, Minneapolis Lakers (today’s LA Lakers), including NBA great, Elgin Baylor. A former Marine pilot successfully landed the converted World War II cargo airplane in a frozen cornfield just a few yards from the marker sign in the park and next to today’s Laker Court, a basketball court in Lakers colors built in 2010 and donated by the Los Angeles Lakers franchise. The marker contains a photo and description of the event. A bronze plaque is located next to Laker Court and thanks the Lakers for sponsoring the court on the historic event’s 50th anniversary.

LINCOLN HIGHWAY MILE MARKERS
In 1928 the Lincoln Highway Association with the help of Boy Scouts across the U.S. placed concrete markers approximately every mile along the Lincoln Highway. As you drive through Carroll County, there are several spots with the original Lincoln Highway Mile Markers. Locations are: Carroll County Historical Museum, and a farm east of Glidden. Lincoln Highway route through Carroll is marked with LH street markers.

MANNING RAILROAD TRESTLE
North of Manning
Railroad trestle bridge built in 1913-14 by the Chicago Milwaukee Railroad and is still in use today. Originally double-tracked, it crossed over the Nishnabotna River and two other railroad lines.

MERCHANTS PARK (CARROLL BASEBALL STADIUM)
The historic 1949 Merchants Park built for Carroll’s semi-pro team (Merchants) is a unique site for some of the finest high school, college & semi pro baseball in Iowa. Plans are progressing for a full restoration of the ball park. For more information, call Parks & Rec Dept. (712) 792-5400.
MERLE HAY GRAVE AND MEMORIAL
Merle Hay Memorial Cemetery, ½ mile west of Glidden

Graham Park, Grant Road between 7th and 11th St, Carroll
An authentic one room schoolhouse from the 1880’s & log cabin from the 1850’s located in the park for viewing and tours. (712) 792-1512

RIVERSIDE PARK
Northeast corner of Coon Rapids
144 acre park with camping, hiking and wildlife viewing. Riverside Campground is a small camping area located on the east edge of Coon Rapids on Walnut Avenue. Twelve electric sites are available for RV camping. There is room for tent camping as well as a new shower house available for campers to use. A 2.5-mile paved hiking/biking trail adjacent to the Middle Raccoon River features a 100 ft. suspension bridge and is easily accessible from the campground. There is also a shelter house available on a first-come, first-serve basis. (712) 792-4614

SANTA MARIA VINEYARD & WINERY
218 W 6th St, Carroll
Located in downtown Carroll, IA. Iowa’s largest urban winery and restaurant. Chosen by Midwest Living Magazine as one of the “TOP 10 PLACES TO EAT IN THE MIDWEST.” Come see the winery in a renovated historic building along the Old Lincoln Highway (Hwy 30). Try their award-winning wines, relax on an outdoor piazza, and grab a bite to eat at the restaurant, or warm up in front of the fireplace. (712) 775-2013 www.santamariawinery.com
SAUK RAIL TRAIL
The Sauk Rail Trail is a 33 mile long multi-use recreational trail. From Swan Lake State Park to Black Hawk State Park. Both state parks have lakes and camping facilities. There are several rest stops along the way, benches, shelters, bars, and restaurants. The trail surface is concrete from Lake View to Maple River and asphalt from Maple River to Swan Lake in Carroll. It is an excellent place for biking, walking, jogging and in-line skating and is open for snowmobiling and cross-country skiing during the winter, and portions of the trail are open for hunting during the appropriate seasons. User fees are required for those ages 18 and up, $2.00/day or $15.00/year; trail passes can be found at the Carroll County Conservation Board, Sac County Conservation Board and trailheads, there are several of those along the way which have a yellow post with a yellow box on top for trail passes. Call about group rates. (712) 792-4614  www.sauk-trail.com

SHOPPING IN STYLE

BREDA
Breda is a proud and progressive German community established in 1877. The businesses include a variety of 20 different types ranging from food, auto service, specialty shops, recreational facilities to commercial and industrial businesses.
CARROLL
Carroll’s retail community boasts “small town atmosphere, service and convenience with big city selection and savings.” The Central Business District features an enclosed mall and several blocks of street front stores. You’ll find unique craft, gift and specialty shops. The clothing and shoe stores offer a great mix of sophisticated styles and moderately priced merchandise. There are also home stores, jewelry stores, popular chain stores and much more. Or maybe you are looking for that special one-of-a-kind item. Is it shabby chic or rustic industrial furniture? Are you crafty and want to create your own special pieces using salvage treasures? Maybe you are looking for vintage clothing or gently used clothing for your growing children. If any of these interest you, there are several stores in Carroll that you will want to explore. Your shopping experience doesn’t end there. Businesses and restaurants line the Hwy 30 and 71 corridors. To truly appreciate the shopping in Carroll, you should experience it yourself.

COON RAPIDS
Downtown Coon Rapids has a diversified shopping area. In a two-block area, shoppers find a host of goods and services including hardware, furniture, clothing, gifts, farm merchandise, and other goods -- all from friendly small business proprietors.

GLIDDEN
Glidden boasts of two growing business centers in both the historic downtown area and the Lincoln Highway (US Highway 30) corridor. Glidden businesses can supply your needs. Spend a day or spend an hour. Come watch us grow in Glidden!

MANNING
Manning is proud of its heritage and continued growth over the years, whether supporting a new modern, community-owned hospital or the transplant of a 400-year-old Hausbarn from a world away. Manning has a vibrant downtown and is a terrific place to call home with a unique vision and innovative way of thinking. And that is refreshing. We invite you to be our guest…visit…come live…and you’ll see why we say, “Manning, Iowa…It’s Refreshing.”

◆ Designed by Chicago Architect Charles Sumner Frost in late Victorian Romanesque style
◆ Construction completed in 1896 at the cost of $28,000
◆ Passenger train service stopped in 1959
◆ Discontinued freight delivery in mid 1970’s
◆ Local leaders began efforts to save the depot in 1990
◆ Saved the depot from the wrecking ball. Negotiated with the Union Pacific to have the building donated
◆ The City of Carroll and Wal-Mart donated the park area
◆ Project was a renovation, not a restoration, because of the dilapidated condition of the buildings
◆ Ticket booth, windows, ceiling and wood trim were designed as original to give the feeling of the historic depot
◆ Exterior renovation was completed in 2004
◆ Interior renovation was completed in 2007
◆ Donations, grants and volunteer labor made this 1.8 million dollar project possible
◆ Three terracotta monuments designed by Des Moines artist David Dahlquist representing the Chicago & North Western, Union Pacific and Chicago Great Western railroads that served Carroll stand in the courtyard
◆ Carroll Chamber of Commerce moved in August 2007
◆ Baggage building is connected by a steel truss-supported canopy and serves as the Chamber Board Meeting Room. Railway Express Agency building is available for meetings and social activities
◆ Passenger Platform and Depot Plaza provide public space for community events and activities
◆ One of few structures in Carroll listed on National Historic Register (1990)
◆ Carroll Depot has been returned to an active, vibrant part of the Carroll community
Carroll County, located in west-central Iowa, is working hard to diversify, strengthen and develop its economy. Carroll County ranks among the highest livestock producing counties in Iowa and the nation. Manufacturing employment totals over 2,000.

Carroll is the regional business center for west-central Iowa. It is located at the junction of U.S. Highways 30 and 71 and is served by the Union Pacific Railroad. Des Moines Area Community College has a campus located in Carroll which plays an important part in economic development efforts. St. Anthony Regional Hospital’s continued expanded services highlight Carroll’s position as a regional medical center.
